9. MONITORING & REVIEW

- An annual review of the policy and awardees' performance would be done by Dean Academics, as per criteria and presented to the Scholarship Committee.

● Cancellation

Should a student withdraw from the course, or is expelled, or if any information provided to avail the scholarship is found false at any time, the scholarship would be cancelled with immediate effect. The full course fees would thereafter need to be paid to DMC&H alongwith a 50% penalty. (An affidavit would have to be submitted to this effect).

● Prizes/ Awards

In order to give opportunity to others, the same student cannot be awarded more than once during his/her course.

● Employee ward Scholarship

- There should be no adverse employment record; there should be no disciplinary action or court proceedings (past or pending) against the employee or initiated by the employee. If any such issue emerges before, during, or after the scholarship period, DMC&H is entitled to recover the scholarship amount in full or in instalments over a period of two years (or at the discretion of the Scholarship Committee) to recover the full amount along with penalty of 50% of the scholarship amount.
- The scholarship would be valid only while the parent is actively employed at DMC&H. If the parent voluntarily resigns, the scholarship support would cease from that point. If the services are terminated by DMC&H, the latter would also recover the scholarship amount already paid. However, if he/she retires after two years of grant of scholarship, the scholarship would continue. All employees availing the benefit of the Employee Ward Scholarship shall submit an affidavit declaring that they have atleast two years of service before retirement at the time of admission.
- In all cases (including above) where a student withdraws from the College, he/she will have to pay balance fees of the course, besides the above mentioned.

Note: However Scholarship Committee can judiciously decide to recommend to the Secretary for waiving off the 50% penalty.

TYPES OF SCHOLARSHIPS

A. For students seeking admission in MBBS course for the year 2026-27:

A1 Merit:

Number of Scholarships: $3+5 = 8$ (Eight)

Objective: To attract a cohort of high-quality students who secured top rankings in NEET (Punjab merit list), and who are granted admission to DMC&H. The presence of such a cohort would benefit the current students of DMC&H, as well as gradually transforming the eco-system of the college into an even more scholarly one.

Eligibility: Students ranked amongst the top 30 in the NEET examination (Punjab merit list) and who have secured admission to the MBBS degree course at DMC&H under Govt. Quota

Number of Scholarships: 3 (Three)

Among the top fifteen rank holders: Three Full scholarships (all fees plus hostel charges, wherever applicable) will be awarded in order of merit among first three rank holders till 15th rank who join DMC&H.

Number of Scholarships: 5 (Five)

If more than 3 students among top 15 rank holders in NEET Punjab merit list join DMC&H, the fourth student and onwards will be considered for 50% scholarship along with those ranked 16th to 30th.

These 5 scholarships till rank 30 in descending order of merit will be for 50% of the full fee amount including hostel charges (wherever applicable):

A2 Means Based Scholarship

● Two 100% scholarships including hostel fee wherever applicable.

● Five 50% scholarships including hostel fee wherever applicable.

● Five 25% scholarships including hostel fee wherever applicable.

All applicants should have been ranked at NEET (Punjab Merit) top 400 positions. In case the number of applicants exceeds the number of scholarships, then the applicants with highest NEET scores will be selected.

A3 Employee Ward Scholarship: 1+4 = 5 (five)

The employee-ward scholarship scheme is designed to reward long-term commitment to DMC&H and to encourage employees to continue their association with the institute.

Eligibility: Children (wards) of doctors or other employees who hold regular, full-time positions at DMC&H, and have completed at least 10 years of service at the institute. There should be no adverse employment record, disciplinary action or court proceedings (past or pending) against the employee or initiated/ continuing by the employee.

The scholarship would be valid only while the parent is actively employed at DMC&H. If the parent voluntarily resigns or his services terminated, the scholarship support would cease from that point. However, if the student leaves his/her course midstream, he/she would have to pay the balance fees along with 50% penalty of the scholarship amount, since his/her seat would continue to be vacant and some other deserving student who was deprived of this scholarship.

Number of Scholarships: 1(One)

100% of fee (without hostel):

This scholarship is reserved for wards of DMC&H staff having annual income of Rs 10 lacs (combined income of both parents of ward) and below.

Number of Scholarships: 4 (four)
